

Labourer-Metal Fabrication (shop labourer/entry level steel fabricator)

We are a Custom Manufacturing Facility that creates the finest quality stainless steel, light to medium and architectural metal custom products in any diverse size or shape and is seeking a designer of sheet metal. Our aim is to provide the highest quality handcrafted workmanship in everything that we design and produce.

Summary

The Labourer is required to ensure the safe, efficient operation, cleaning of and running adjustments for machine(s). Responsible for maintaining a clean work area and equipment, transporting raw materials and finished metal products, loading and unload vehicles, and grind or chip excess metal from metal products.

Job Duties

- Operating metal shearing, pinching, and bending machinery
- Grind or chip excess metal from metal products
- Metal finishing: specific to stainless steel material
- Transport raw materials and finished metal products
- Tig and Mig welding as asset
- Loading and unloading of trucks
- Clean work areas and equipment
- Occasional customer field service
- Attention to safety and quality
- Positive attitude and good attendance necessary
- Complete all assigned Quality checks
- Participate in training and cross training, improvement initiatives including health and safety and quality improvement
- Adhere to all workplace safety policies, compliances and regulations

Requirements

- Completion of high school or GED.
- Ability to speak, read, and write English
- Driving record check (abstract) required
- Highly punctual
- Reliable means of transportation
- Strong work ethic
- Ability to work independently in a busy environment

Work Conditions

- Physically able to lift up to 50 lbs
- Safety equipment will be required, e.g. steel-toed safety boots, safety glasses/goggles, etc.
- Overtime as required
- Hazards associated with the trade

If you possess these working skill sets, a positive attitude and enjoy hands on training then you will enjoy joining our team.

Salary will be based on Qualifications.

Should you require any special accommodations during the recruitment process, please let us know.

Job Type: Full-time